San Ramon Valley USD Area 2 Board Member Announces 2024 Re-election Campaign

Date: Monday, June 24, 2024

DANVILLE, CA — San Ramon Valley Unified School District’s Board of Education Vice President Shelley Clark proudly announces her decision to seek re-election in November.

A proven leader deeply embedded in the Danville community for over 35 years, Trustee Clark has a vision for SRVUSD that revolves around equity, quality, and safety in public education for all students. She champions fiscal transparency and actively seeks out input from all stakeholders, believing in collaborative problem-solving to address the District’s challenges.

"I am incredibly proud of the progress we've made over the last four years in the San Ramon Valley Unified School District. Our focus on fostering academic excellence, embracing technological advancements, and enhancing student well-being has created a more inclusive and dynamic learning environment," said Shelley Clark. "Together with our dedicated educators, supportive parents, and engaged community, SRVUSD has implemented programs that prepare our students for future success. I look forward to continuing this important work for the next four years."

During Shelley’s tenure on the school board, she helped create numerous advancements and improvements, including: elevated student voice; expanded college and career pathways; implementation of data dashboard; no more “Me too” clause in Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent contracts; facility improvements; building community engagement; strategic directions and learner profile; and promoting student health and well-being.

“We have accomplished a lot in the almost four years I have been on the board, but there is still much to do. I care deeply about our students’ wellbeing, as well as their academic growth,” Clark explained. “I believe in inclusivity and providing each student what they need to be successful. I am a voice for all students and will continue to be if I am re-elected.”

Area 2 encompasses the John Baldwin Elementary School neighborhoods, and much of the Sycamore Elementary, Greenbrook Elementary, Vista Grande Elementary, and portions of San Ramon Valley High School and Monte Vista neighborhoods. The election for the SRVUSD School Board is nonpartisan and will take place on Tuesday, November 5, 2024.
